Hello Fearless Four Families,

Hope this letter finds you well. We can't believe it is almost May. While at home we have been busy with home projects along with helping our children with distance learning. It's keeping us all a little busy. Here is a new week of some ideas that you can do at home with your child!

Gross motor is a big part in a child's life it helps keep them moving and active. Here is the link to a spring themed activity that you and your child can do together

During circle time in class we like to sing songs about things going on. So here is a great song about growing plants. Spring is the best time to sing it!!

Science!!! The kids love science!! Here is the link to a great seed growing activity that we do in class during springtime.
